Bijauri Campus, Brahmasthan of India

Agreement

I am applying for a Course at the Brahmasthan of India ("Course"). To further the success of the Courses and its possible benefits personally and for the world, and to help ensure the continuation of these Courses, in consideration of my acceptance to the Course, I agree, as follows:

1. My decision to attend the Course is based solely upon my personal experience thus far with the Transcendental Meditation* (TM*) program and/or TM-Sidhi program. No promises or warranties of any benefits or particular results have been made to me or have influenced me to enter into this agreement or participate in this Course.
2. I am presently in good mental and physical health and I am performing well in my daily personal and professional activities.
3. I understand that the Bijauri campus at the Brahmasthan of India is located in the remote rural center of India. I understand that for some minor health issues, modest medical facilities are close by, but for more serious health problems, better medical facilities are only available two hours away. I also understand and agree that if the course leaders request that I see a medical doctor then I will follow that advice.
4. I shall comply with all Course rules and regulations and will conduct myself in a manner that will not disrupt the smooth functioning of the Course. If I do not comply with the course rules or am disruptive, I understand that I may be asked to leave the course.

I have read and understood everything in this Agreement and agree to all its terms. I understand that I am being accepted to the Course on the basis of my responses to the questions in the Course application and my representation, warranties and promises expressed in this Agreement. I represent that everything that I have expressed in my Course application and in this Agreement is accurate and true.
